

Important Update

Thank you for continuing to trust GeoBlue to meet your customer's travel medical insurance needs. The market for travel medical coverage is growing rapidly, and it looks like 2024 will be a great year for international travel!

After a comprehensive review of the market and medical cost inflation, we are applying some rate increases to our short-term GeoBlue Voyager® and GeoBlue Trekker® plans.

These new rates will be effective for plans purchased on or after April 17th, 2024. The rate increases vary by plan and the member's age. Across all plans the average rate increase is under 5%. For Voyager Choice (our most popular plan) there are no increases for individuals over age 64.

As a reminder, all our GeoBlue short-term medical plans include:

- Telemedicine at no extra cost
- A highly rated mobile app
- A provider network in 190 countries
- Guaranteed issue up to age 95 on all plans
- Coverage for pre-existing conditions on every plan but Voyager Essential

Thank you again and we look forward to continuing to support all your customers' international travel medical needs in 2024!
