special enrollment period

Covered California for Small Business will have an upcoming Special Enrollment Period (SEP) from November 15, 2024 through December 15, 2024. During this period, new small groups do not need to meet the minimum contribution or participation requirements, however eligibility requirements still apply. This is a great opportunity for new groups who might not be able to meet the standard contribution or participation requirements to select quality coverage.

who's who in CCSB?
